The Grown Carey, do.: Dr. Alice Barry, Miss Danne, St. Andrew's accompanied by about 18 plane, St. Andrew's Andrew 18 plane, St. Andrew's accompanied by about 18 plane, Miss Harrison urged the necessity for incredians, and by the first duity.

Miss Harrison urged the necessity for incredians to plane, and by the support of plane and p t the weekly meeting of the Guardians of the mother and 2/6 for each child eught to be the minimum.

The Chairman, on behalf of the Board, thanke the ladies for having placed their views so clearly before the Guardians. These views would receive sympathetic consideration from the Guardians. The great difficulty in the way was money. The custmates for the year would not warrant the Guardians in going the whole length suggested by the deputation, but they would go into it matter carefully.

The deputation then withdrew, and the ordinar business was disposed of.

Alle following French communiqué was issued at Salonika on Tuesday:—
In spite of the bringing up of fresh German troops, the enemy was obliged to continue his retreat towards the north. Strong rearguards are, however, still offering desperate resistance to the north-west of Monastir.
On the left wing the Allied forces have advanced beyond Prilep, and are making progress, on the Krushevo, Kisevo, and Veles roads.

In the centre the Serbian armics have carried the Popadija massif, to the east of Babluna, and they have gained some ground to the west of the lower Gerna.
